

INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION

NORTH AMERICA

EXPERTS WITH IMPACT

FTI Consulting has the largest established and fastest growing global international arbitration expert witness practice. We are present in more global arbitration centers and geographic regions than any of our competitors.

International Arbitration Practice

Questions of accountancy, economics, finance or valuation often arise in the resolution of international disputes. The number and scale of such disputes is growing, and so is the complexity of associated evidential and damages issues. More than ever, providing robust analysis and clear communication to tribunals is essential for a successful outcome.

OUR TEAM

Our highly-credentialed International Arbitration team comprises the largest recognized group of testifying experts of any firm. Our experts have extensive experience in damages quantification and related services and are supported by a dedicated team of professionals, industry specialists and emerging experts.

As a result we understand the complex business and regulatory issues facing our clients and can bring a depth of knowledge and analytical rigor to our work that few organizations are able to match.

OUR TRACK RECORD

Our economic and financial consulting practice is a leading provider of services to law firms, businesses, investors and governments in the areas of valuation, finance, economics, forensic accountancy, investigations and regulation. Our experts provide independent advice and expert testimony on damages and related issues at each stage of the dispute resolution process.

A TRUE GLOBAL PRACTICE

FTI Consulting has the largest established and fastest growing international arbitration expert witness practice. We are present in more arbitration centers and geographic regions than any of our competitors. FTI Consulting is expanding rapidly to respond to and anticipate emerging trends in international arbitration. Newer practices are led and staffed by professionals from our founding offices.
