

(Title –Form 1)

A. DETAILS OF APPLICATION

This application is made under sections 439A and 447A of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Act) and section 90-15 of Schedule 2 of the Corporations Act, the Insolvency Practice Schedule (Corporations).

Through this application, the First Applicants apply for orders to extend the convening period for the second meeting of creditors (Second Meeting) of the Second to Eighth Applicants (Companies), which is required to be held under section 439A of the Act.

On the facts stated in the supporting affidavit of Benjamin Campbell affirmed 30 March 2026 and filed in support of this application, the First Applicants seek the following orders:

Extension of Convening Period

1. An order pursuant to section 439A(6) of the Act that the date of the convening period within which the First Applicants must convene the Second Meeting of the Companies as required by s 439A of the Act, be extended up to and including 14 July 2026.
2. An order pursuant to s 447A(1) of the Act, that Part 5.3A of the Act is to operate in relation to the Companies such that the Second Meeting may be convened and held, at any time during, or within five (5) business days after, the end of the convening period as extended by proposed order 1 above, notwithstanding the provisions of section 439A(2) of the Act.

Notification of the application and orders

3. An order, pursuant to section 447A (1) of the Act and/or section 90-15 of the Rules, that Part 5.3A of the Act is to operate in relation to the Companies as if the requirements of the First Applicants to issue any notice under sections 75-225(1) and 75-15 of the Rules will be validly given to the creditors of the Companies (including persons claiming to be creditors) by reason of the following steps having been taken not less than 5 business days prior to the date of the proposed meeting:
 - a. where the First Applicants:
 - i. have an email address for a creditor, by sending such notice electronically to the email address of the creditor; and
 - ii. do not have an email address for the creditor, by sending the Notice by posting a copy of it to the postal address for the creditor.

- b. by causing such notice to be published on the website of the First Applicants at <https://www.fticonsulting.com/creditors/a-raptis-and-sons-pty-ltd-administrators-appointed>; and
 - c. by causing the Notice to be published on the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) published notices website at <https://insolvencynotices.asic.gov.au/>.
4. An order that the First Applicants must take all reasonable steps to cause notice of the orders to be given within 2 business days of the making of these orders, to:
- a. the creditors (including persons or entities claiming to be creditors) of the Companies, in the following manner:
 - i. where the First Applicants have an email address for a creditor – by notifying each such creditor, via email, of the making of the orders and providing a link to a website where the creditor may download the orders and the Originating Application;
 - ii. where the First Applicants do not have an email address for a creditor, but have a postal address for that creditor (or have received notification of non-delivery of a notice sent by email in accordance making of the orders and providing a link to a website where the creditor may download the orders and the Originating Application;
 - iii. placing sealed copies of the Originating Application and the orders on the website maintained by the First Applicants at “<https://www.fticonsulting.com/creditors/a-raptis-and-sons-pty-ltd-administrators-appointed>”; and
 - b. the ASIC.

Other relief

5. An order that any person who can demonstrate a sufficient interest has liberty to apply to vary or discharge any of these orders, on three business days’ written notice being given to the First Applicants.
6. An order that the First Applicants have liberty to apply to the Court in relation to any variation of these orders or any other matter generally arising in the administration of the Companies.
7. An order that the First Applicant’s costs and expenses of and incidental to the application are to be treated as costs in the administration of the Companies and be paid out of the assets of the Companies.
