Reasons for the proposal and the likely impact it will have on creditors if it is passed

The proposal is being put to creditors to approve remuneration as allowed under law.

The proposal if passed will minimise the cost of approving remuneration to the Liquidator, which would otherwise require a meeting of creditors or court application to be approved – which can be costly.

Remuneration of the Liquidator is to be paid in priority to other claims under the Corporations Act. This ensures that when there are sufficient funds, the Liquidator receives payment for the work done to recover assets, investigate the company’s affairs, report to creditors and ASIC and distribute any available funds. Even if creditors approve my remuneration, this does not guarantee that I will be paid, as I am only paid if sufficient assets are recovered.

Based on the information presently available, the extent of the assets realised and the investigations undertaken to date, we are unable to provide a dividend estimate of any certainty at this stage of the Liquidation. If we do declare a dividend, any creditor whose claim has not yet been admitted will be contacted and asked to submit a proof of debt.

My remuneration approval report, which has been provided with this notice provides more detailed information on the remuneration I am seeking to be approved.
