

Service and Execution of Process Act 1992 (Section 16)

NOTICE TO RESPONDENT

PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE AND THE ATTACHED DOCUMENT VERY CAREFULLY

IF YOU HAVE ANY TROUBLE UNDERSTANDING THEM YOU SHOULD GET LEGAL ADVICE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

Attached to this notice is an Originating Application and affidavit of Joanne Emily Dunn (“the attached process”) issued out of the Supreme Court of Queensland.

Service of the attached process outside Queensland is authorised by the Service and Execution of Process Act 1992.

YOUR RIGHTS

If a court of a State or Territory other than the State of Queensland is the appropriate court to determine the claim set out in the attached process, you may be able to have the proceeding stayed by applying to the Supreme Court of Queensland.

If you think the proceeding should be stayed you should get legal advice as soon as possible.

CONTESTING THE CLAIM

If you want to contest this claim, you must take any action set out in the attached process as being necessary to contest the claim.

If you want to contest this claim, you must also file a Notice of Appearance in the Supreme Court of Queensland and an affidavit stating the grounds for your objection. You have until 4pm (AEST) on Friday, 18 February 2022 to do so.

The Notice of Appearance must contain an address in Australia where documents can be left for you or sent to you.
