GUIDANCE AND INSTRUCTIONS

FORM OF PROXY

A person can appoint another person to attend the meeting on their behalf by completing the Form of proxy.

If the member is a company or a firm, a person needs to be appointed to represent the company.

This representative needs to be appointed by completing the Form of proxy in accordance with section 127 of the Corporations Act. Alternatively, the appointed person must be authorised to act as a representative for the company per section 250D of the Corporations Act.

The Form of proxy is valid only for the meeting indicated (or any adjournment).

You may appoint either a general proxy (a person who may vote at their discretion on motions at the meeting) or a special proxy (who must vote according to your directions). If you appoint a special proxy, you should indicate on the form what directions you have given. In many instances, there will be a box or section on the proxy form where you can mark how you want your proxy to vote for you.

If you are unable to attend the meeting and you do not have a representative who can attend on your behalf, you may if you wish appoint the Chairperson of the Meeting as your proxy. The Chairperson can be appointed as a general proxy or a special proxy.
