Experts in valuation and economics, and construction quantum and delay

Issues of economics, finance, valuation and accountancy, and construction quantum and delay, often arise in disputes. Our Construction Solutions and Economic & Financial Consulting practices provide leading teams of experienced expert witnesses, providing clear and reliable advice and expert testimony on such issues to parties, their counsel, courts and tribunals.

Each of these practitioners knows from direct experience what is required to meet the duties of an expert witness. They know what it takes to help the court or tribunal through the presentation of oral evidence in chief and under cross-examination. All of our practitioners have considerable experience in preparing written evidence for use by courts and tribunals. Our team of 30 dedicated professionals based in Singapore is focused on supporting our testifying experts in delivering accurate and persuasive written and oral testimony on all our matters, in Southeast Asia and more broadly.

Experienced in all dispute resolution forums

Commercial disputes, and disputes between investors and states, are resolved by national courts and arbitration tribunals and through expert determination. We have considerable experience of acting in each of those forums, in jurisdictions and seats worldwide, including for many years in Singapore and the rest of Southeast Asia.

LITIGATION	TREATY ARBITRATION	COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION	EXPERT DETERMINATION
We appear before courts in Hong Kong, Singapore and Australia and other jurisdictions, both common law and civil.	We are instructed by investors and states in ICSID and other bilateral investment treaty arbitrations.	We are appointed by parties to SIAC, HKIAC, DIAC, ICSID, UNCITRAL, ICC, LCIA, and other arbitrations of commercial disputes, with seats worldwide.	We determine disputed matters in our disciplines and assist parties with submissions to experts making such determinations.

“The FTI team are bright, thoughtful and hardworking but, perhaps more importantly, it’s a real pleasure working with them - they are superb at de-cluttering complex issues and readily enabling my team and me to do what we need to do efficiently and effectively.”
